Effective 2/1/06, if Bank of America notifies you that we have placed a hold on your deposit, you will now be able to withdraw the funds on the date and by the time of day stated on the notification of deposit hold that we give you. Your current ability to withdraw the first $100 from your deposit will not change.

In addition to cash withdrawals, this change also governs transactions such as electronic payments, cashier's or teller's checks, certified checks and debit card transactions using the deposited funds.

A monthly service charge was applied to your account because your balance was below the minimum balance of $4,000 and the average balance of $8,000. You can avoid this charge by linking other Bank of America savings plans and meeting the $7,500 minimum combined balance or $15,000 average combined balance requirements.

Deposit Agreement. When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule, which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship, may be obtained at our banking centers.

Electronic Transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers
If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

For other accounts we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting Other Problems. You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or unauthorized transactions within the time periods specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you for, and you agree not to make a claim against us for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct Deposits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled.
